Memorandum

TO: Health and Education Commissioners

FROM: Juan Arauz, Associate Planner

DATE: May 25, 2017

SUBJECT: Health and Education Commission Update on Priorities and Goals

It is recommended that the Health and Education Commission (HEC) discuss goals and priorities. The following is a list of former goals and programs selected as priorities by the HEC:

1. Water Conservation Program.
2. Lead Abatement Program.
3. Tree Planting Program.
4. Focused General Plan Update.
5. Randolph Rails to Trails.

The following is a list of items previously discussed by the HEC as future priorities:

1. Organization of education fair(s) within the City.
2. Organization of health fair(s) within the City.

After discussing, the recommendation is to take action on these goals and programs and set a timeline for expected results. The HEC may also add new goals and programs to the list of selected priorities.
