Huntington Park Girls Softball League

The Girls Softball League has proven to be a home run for the Huntington Park community. On Saturday, October 1, 2016, the City of Huntington Park, Parks and Recreation Department hit the ground with its new Girls Softball League, with forty-four girls registering to participate in the league, their ages ranging from eleven to fourteen years old.

The softball league provided a safe, enjoyable and rewarding opportunity, teaching life skills, such as the importance of teamwork, competing through adversity, responsibility, and dedication.

With much support and coordination from sponsorships and volunteers, the softball league will provide an opportunity for youth to partake in an organized and structured athletic program. The league will provide participants with weekly practices, games, and knowledgeable coaches to learn from.

The Mayor of Huntington Park, an advocate for the league and former softball participant herself, was a grand believer in the success of the recreational program in the community and personally sponsored each participant who registered for the softball league.

The Parks and Recreation Department hopes to continue having great success with the softball league and encourages all those interested in participating in the near future to follow up with the Department at a later time in order to learn more about the softball league. Please contact the Parks and Recreation Department for further information at (323) 584 – 6218.

“myHuntingtonPark” App

The City of Huntington Park continues to approach the issue of graffiti, illegal dumping, and other community issues in the city by providing the public multiple reporting sources to keep the community clean. From online service requests to over the phone reporting, the City of Huntington Park has launched an additional and more convenient approach when reporting issues in the community. Smartphone users are able to download “myHuntingtonPark” app available for Android and iOS devices, at no cost.

At any point, app users are able to capture images of graffiti and illegal dumping found in the city and also report bus stop concerns through the app. The request for service is then sent to the appropriate department. Once the image is taken, the app will pin point the exact location of where the image was captured to confirm the location of the area that requires attention. An email confirmation of completion will be sent to the app user once the service request has been completed and images of the before and after service will also be provided.

“myHuntingtonPark” app has made reporting graffiti, illegal dumping, and other community concerns much easier and faster for the public to use and communicate with their city. By working together, the City of Huntington Park hopes to ensure residents an enjoyable, beautiful, and safe place to live, work, and play.

“Haunt”ington Park Halloween Festival

City of Huntington Park staff and volunteers spent Halloween night screaming, springing at and scaring attendees of the “Haunt”ington Park Halloween Festival at Robert H. Keller Memorial Park – 6550 Miles Avenue, October 31, 2016. The night of horror proved to be a success, with the haunted house as the main attraction for the event with over 3,000 participants walking through. Candy bags were given to all those who survived the haunted house and other activities; such as, free train rides and carnival booths. A special screening Hotel Transylvania 2 was also available for those who did not dare enter the horrifying haunted building.

With assistance from multiple City of Huntington Park Departments, along with Huntington Park Police Activities League (PAL), volunteers, and sponsors, the Halloween Festival was truly a night to remember. Everyone involved in coordinating this event did a great job generating terrors.

HPPD Teen Police Academy

The Youth Services Unit of the Huntington Park Police Department offers various community-based services and programs for the City's youth. Most of the programs operate through the support of the Huntington Park Police Department and its Police Activities League (PAL), which is identified as a 501(c) 3 organization.

Huntington Park's Police Activities League was established in 1998, in part to deter juvenile delinquency, build leadership skills, and foster community relations. Eighteen years later, the Police Activities League continues to further its mission of offering innovative youth programs that promote positive relationships between cops, kids, and the community.

This October, the Department hosted one of its newest youth programs — The Teen Police Academy. The Academy is a 10-week, after school program that is both educational and interactive. It is specifically designed for those between the ages of 14-17, with ties to the community. The objective is to provide the participants an opportunity to gain firsthand knowledge of how the Department operates and to demonstrate the benefits of community-based policing.

During the Academy the participants will meet the Chief of Police and learn from police officers and specialized police personnel about various topics, which include, but are not limited to Department procedures; criminal investigations; patrol operations; support services; crime prevention and community relations; and much more.

Ultimately the Department wishes to enhance positive relationships between Cops, Kids and the Community as a whole.

Festival de Halloween “Haunt”ington Park

Los empleados y voluntarios de la ciudad de Huntington Park pasaron la Noche de Halloween gritando, saltando y asustando a los asistentes del festival de Halloween “Haunt”ington Park en el parque memorial de Robert H. Keller – 6550 Miles Avenida, el 31 de octubre del 2016. La noche de horror se presentó con un éxito total, la casa de espantos fue la atracción principal para el evento con más de 3,000 participantes que pasaron por la puerta esa noche. Bolsas de dulces se dieron a todos los que sobrevivieron la casa de espantos y muchas otras actividades; tales como, paseos gratis en tren, caseta de carnaval, y la película de noche de espantos llamada Hotel Transylvania 2 para los que no se atrevieron a entrar al horroroso edificio espantado o que se cansaron de jugar con la variedad de juegos de entretenimiento.

Con la asistencia de los múltiples departamentos de la ciudad de Huntington Park, junto con la liga de actividades del departamento de policía (PAL), voluntarios y patrocinadores, el festival de Halloween fue en verdad una noche para recordar. Todos involucrados en coordinar este evento hicieron un trabajo excelente generando noches de terror a todos los que se atrevieron a entrar a la casa de espantos esta noche.

HPPD Academia de Policía para Adolescentes

La unidad de servicios para jóvenes del departamento de policía de Huntington Park ofrece varios servicios comunitarios y programas para la juventud de la ciudad. La mayoría de los programas funcionan con el respaldo del departamento de policía de la ciudad de Huntington Park y su Liga de Actividades Policiacas (PAL por sus siglas en inglés), la cual se identifica como una organización 501 (c) 3.

Dieciocho años después, la Liga de Actividades Policiacas continúa adelante con su misión de ofrecer programas juveniles innovadores que promueven relaciones positivas entre los policías, jóvenes, y la comunidad.

El pasado mes de Octubre, el departamento organizó uno de sus más recientes programas juveniles – La Academia de Policía para Jóvenes. La academia es un curso de diez (10) semanas de duración, después de la escuela y es un programa educativo e interactivo. Está diseñado específicamente para aquellos jóvenes entre los 14-17 años de edad, con vínculos a la comunidad.

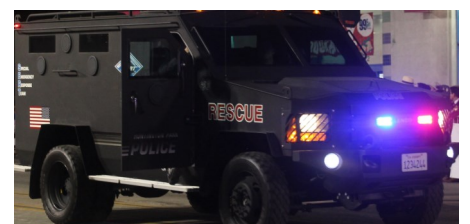

Durante la academia los participantes conocerán a el jefe de policía y aprenderán de los policías y personal especializado sobre varios temas del departamento, incluyendo, pero no están limitados a los procedimientos del departamento, investigaciones criminales, operaciones de patrulla; servicios de apoyo, prevención del crimen y relaciones con la comunidad, y mucho más.
