Captain Martinez attended the meeting to give the commissioners an update on crime and safety reports of the Parks. Captain Martinez stated he would like to attend the commission meeting once a quarter.

REGULAR AGENDA

1.) Discussion and/ or Action of work plan and upcoming special events

1. Discussion and/ or Action of work plan and upcoming special events.

Recreation Manager Quinones asked for the update on the commission work plan that was discussed in the last meeting.

Commissioner Castillo responded by stating that she is a third-degree black belt in Karate and would like to start a women's self-defense class or a \general self-defense class. Director of Parks and Recreation Cynthia Norzagaray responded by letting her know we will provide her with the procedures to becoming a class instructor.

Commissioner Emily Cortez would like to bring food vendor sponsorship to our events. Supervisor Maria Preciado will provide Commissioner Emily Cortez with the vendor sponsorship application once it is approved. Commissioner Michelle Ybarra inquired on a partnership with the city and the Huntington Park youth program to bring in a football league to keep the community youth involved and bring more kids into the community. The partnership will keep our kids in our community rather than going to other cities. Director of Parks and Recreation Cynthia Norzagaray responded by letting her know that she will check in with our sports Supervisor regarding any records of the partnership being in the talks and revisit the conversation.

Commissioner Emily Cortez inquired on the community participation regarding sports. She wanted to know the level of participation in baseball and softball. Director of Parks and Recreation Cynthia Norzagaray responded by letting her know that our grant from the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation has a waiting list in our baseball and softball leagues. As soon as registration opens, we are filled up and have a waiting list. This is the case for the last three years that we have been granted the grant. Vice-President Edgar Gordillo inquired on any new program that the Senior Center is providing post pandemic. Supervisor Maria Preciado responded with the new calendar dates of the Senior Program, activities, and excursions.
