

Yellow Tier guidelines

Reopening Safer at Work and in the Community for Control of COVID-19

Blueprint for a Safer Economy - Yellow Tier Risk Reduction Measures

Revised Order effective as of 12:01 am on Thursday, May 06, 2021

Bars with no meal service

- Indoor capacity at 25% or 100 people, whichever is fewer
- Masking required, except while eating or drinking
- Tables 6 feet apart with no counter seating/service
- Max per table: 6 people from one household indoors, 8 people from up to 3 households outdoors. if everyone in group is fully vaccinated, up to 6(indoor). 8 (outdoors) different households at one table.
- TV viewing allowed; live entertainment outdoors only

Restaurants

- Indoor capacity at 50%. Tables 6 feet apart
- Max per table: 6 people from one household indoors, 8 people from up to 3 households outdoors. if everyone in group is fully vaccinated, up to 6(indoor). 8 (outdoors) different households at one table.
- TV viewing allowed; live entertainment outdoors only

Breweries & Wineries with no meal service

- Indoor capacity at 50% or 200 people, whichever is fewer
- Masking required, except while eating or drinking
- Tables 6 feet apart with no counter seating/service
- Max per table: 6 people from one household indoors, 8 people from up to 3 households outdoors. if everyone in group is fully vaccinated, up to 6(indoor). 8 (outdoors) different households at one table.
- TV viewing allowed; live entertainment outdoors only

Movie Theaters

- Each screening room at capacity at 50% max capacity
- Reserved seating to allow 6 feet of distance in all directions
- Fully Vaccinated section can be established without 6 feet distancing provided there is 3 feet of distance between these sections and other seats in the theater
- Eating or drinking only in a designated area or in seat

Gyms, Fitness Center, and Yoga Studios

- Indoor capacity at 50%
- Masking always required
- 6 feet of distancing between participants and staff for all activities
- Steam rooms and saunas can open

Retail

- Indoor capacity at 75% max to ensure physical distancing
- 6 feet of distancing between non-household members
- Tables 6 feet apart with no counter seating/service (with meal service)
- Indoor live entertainment is not permitted. Outdoor live entertainment must follow Restaurants, Outdoor Seated Live Events, or Appendix z, whichever is most applicable

Grocery Stores and Retail Food Markets

- Indoor capacity at 75% max to ensure physical distancing
- Tables 6 feet apart with no counter seating/service (with meal service)
- Increase cleaning and disinfection for surfaces in high traffic areas or areas exposed to unmasked individuals

Office Worksite

- Indoor capacity at 75% max to ensure physical distancing
- 6 feet of distancing between non-household members
- Fully vaccinated employees do not have to adhere to physical distancing guidelines between employees; however, physical distancing requirements must be in effect for any staff that interacts with visitors, like vendors, delivery personnel, or customers.

Family Entertainment Centers

- Indoor capacity at 50% max based on building capacity or fire code
- Increase occupancy to 75% indoor capacity if all customers are fully vaccinated
- Food and beverage consumption is designated dining areas that are separate from other activity areas

Personal Care Establishments

- Allowed for indoor locker rooms, pools, saunas, and steam rooms to reopen with limited capacity
- Fully vaccinated employees who choose not to wear a face shield in addition to a face mask, employers should confirm and document the employees' full vaccination status.

Music, Television and Film Production

- Updated to increase audience occupancy to Yellow Tier levels. Employees that are otherwise required to wear a face shield or goggles may elect not to wear a face shield if they are fully vaccinated. Employees must still wear a face mask

For details, please visit publichealth.lacounty.gov